SHOWBOAT

240 Main River jazz band, featuring Mark Shatto, Mark Shatto and members from the jazz band, were involved in the music and orchestra in 1976 for the Macmillan Community Music Production of

LI'L ABNER

"Li'l Abner" was the 1976 spring musical at Jefferson Senior High School. Four evening performances were given to full houses. Cast members were honored when the mayor declared the final performance weekend "Li'l Abner Days"

The play concerns the crisis facing Dogpatch, USA, when the town is selected as an A-bomb test site. Li'l Abner, Daisy Mae, Mammy and Pappy Yokum and other Dogpatchers band together to save their beloved town. All ends well, with Li'l Abner winning Daisy Mae from the evil clutches of Earthquake McGoon

CHARLEY'S AUNT

"Who Charley's Aunt from Brazil, where the music come from?" This was a familiar line from the DHS fall play. The comedy portrayed two young men about to declare their love for two fine young ladies to Charley's wealthy aunt. When they heard, however, that Charley's aunt would be late for the "meeting" they dressed a friend to pose as Charley's aunt. The fast movement of the play held the audience's attention from beginning to end.

ONE ACT PLAY

"Infancy," by Thornton Wilder, was this year's one-act play. The comedy-drama was about two infants who express bewilderment over the games they see adults play. The production received three "A" ratings in district competition and was alternate play to the regional contest.

During school year 76-77 Jefferson hosted one foreign exchange student, Buket Ozturk, from Cyprus. Buket, sponsored by the A.F.S. program, stayed with the Ralph Tillit family. She was active in volleyball, basketball, and track. She enjoys skating, skiing, and snowmobiling, even though she really doesn't care for the extremely cold weather. Buket likes the United States and hopes to continue her education in this country. One of the highlights of her stay was a trip out west during the Christmas vacation.

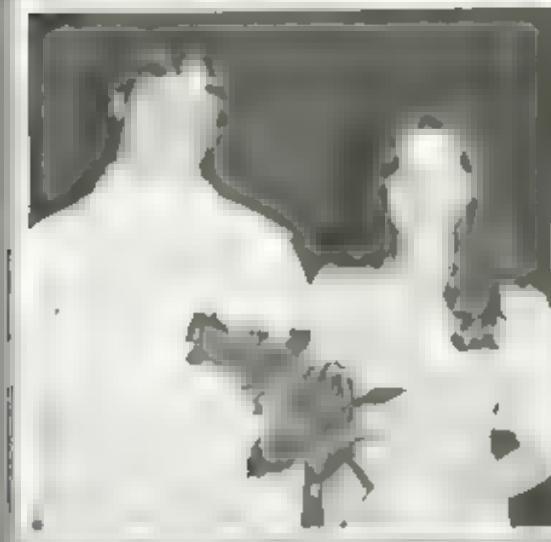

Jefferson was represented by Sue Flint in Africa and Tim Mateer in Spain. Sue spent two summer months in Berekum, Africa. She was the only white in an all-black village and lived with the chief and his three alternating wives. Sue feels it was a fun learning experience.

Tim Mateer stayed in Madrid, Spain this summer for two months. Among other things, he spent a week in an anti-communist camp and hitchhiked halfway across Spain. He especially liked the food and beverages. He felt it was a great educational experience, and also a fantastic way to spend a vacation.

MID WINTER

A variety of events marked the first week of February as Midwinter Week. Coronation was on Thursday and Julie Olson was crowned Princess and Scott Ellison crowned Prince. That evening there were broomball playoffs. Friday was School Colors Day and that night there was a basketball game followed by the sock-hop dance. The Midwinter dance was held at St. Mary's Saturday night featuring the band "Masquerade."

Sundogs began as a literary magazine at Jefferson Senior High School in 1972. Through support from students, faculty, and administration, Sundogs grew from mimeographed booklets to a professionally printed magazine of writing, prints, sketches, and photographs. With the 1975-76 issues it reached beyond the high school and became an area magazine, open to contributors of all ages.

Being on the Alexian staff gives you a first hand experience of producing a yearbook. At the end of the school year, all the hard work pays off when the final result is ready, the yearbook.

In sports we gain freedom through the discipline of using our bodies and minds. Pacing yourself over Crestwood's cross country course or mastering a new wrestling hold, helps you grow physically as your personality matures with acceptance of a victory or loss. When the game is over and down in the records, we realize the satisfaction of working together is what really has become the most important factor of the game.
